AGOSTA WOMAN HURT ON AUTO ACCIDENT

Mrs. William Cleveland Severely Injured as Car Turns Over

Mrs. William Cleveland of Agosta, suffered a severe scalp wound, a lacerated back and an injury to one of her hands in an automobile accident north of Agosta last night at 7:30.

The car in which she was riding with her husband and relative, Mrs. Lillian Wiley and John Wiley of Lynn Mass. turned over on a gravel road just off the Harding highway. Mr. Wiley was driving.

Mrs. Cleveland was pinned to the seat of the car. She was taken to City hospital. Her head went through one of the windows when the machine turned over.

Both Mrs. Cleveland and Wiley were removed to the hospital. Mrs. Cleveland's condition was reported to be fair this morning. Wiley now, he released today, after 11. The other two occupants received minor bruises.

Members of the two families could not be reached this morning for an explanation of the accident, but Cleveland told friends he did not know how it happened. He said he thought the back wheels might have locked. The machine belongs to Wiley.

My Beauty Hint

BY MISS HARRING
CULTURED with the maxims of health and happiness which I believe to be the fundamental of true beauty, exercise and cleanliness can do more toward personal loveliness than any amount of cosmetics.

A Saturday afternoon of golf, early morning tennis and morning breathing exercises before an open window constitute the highlights of the regime of health I practice.

I advise eight hours of sleep a night. Too much sleep makes one sluggish both physically and mentally.

Beautician Helps in Solving
Tax on Milady's Beauty Aids

THOSE interested in cosmetics learned with considerable surprise and regret of the decision of the Senate Finance Committee to slap a luxury tax upon our very necessary rouge and powder.

By persistent lobbying in recent years the cosmetics industry has risen from the lower rungs of the business ladder in America to a position near the top despite conditions that have temporarily crippled many branches of industry.

But it is too late now to change matters. The luxury tax of ten per cent is on all cosmetics perfume, hair dye and restorative hair dressing, oil, pomades, toilet waters as well as on the essences, extracts and other ingredients used in compounding beauty preparations.

Already manufacturers despite the grand profit in toilet preparations are saying that they will be unable to bear the additional cost alone and will have to charge increased prices.

So it looks as if the consumer will have to pay the freight again for the American woman will not go without powder, cream, rouge and permanent waves. One saving grace. Soap and tooth pastes are taxed only 6 per cent so we will be able to keep our teeth and hands clean at less increase in cost than applies to putting the bloom of youth into our cheeks.

Although it is not yet certain just how the tax will work out even though the individual consumer may find it an advantage to buy toiletries in larger quantities. You know there is a big saving now in buying the larger containers of

TOLAN LEADS AMERICAN DASH TEAM TO SMASHING VICTORY

Ex-Michigan Ace Shades Metcalfe in 100-Meter Race.

Four More Records Are Shattered in Events of Monday.

By The Associated Press
LOS ANGELES, Calif., Aug. 2.—America moved swiftly today into a commanding position in the Olympic track and field championships as a result of the smashing victory for the national sprinters in eight events.

The first chapter of the come-back was completed yesterday when two black thunderbolts blazed down the Olympic sprints. They were close together at the finish, but only the motion pictures finally could establish that Eddie Tolan of Detroit beat Ralph Metcalfe of Marquette by two inches in the world record equaling time of 10.3 seconds for the Olympic 100-meter championship.

Not since Jackson Scholz shaded Charley Paddock in the Olympic 200-meter final of 1924 has there been so dazingly close a sprint finish in these international games, and without a single day of rest Tolan and Metcalfe along with their two closest rivals Arthur Jonathan of Germany and George Simpson (third American sprinter) were primed to renew the speed battle today in the first two rounds of 200-meter trials.

Metcalfe has been established the favorite to turn the tables on Tolan but the experts at any rate now foresee the "fast U. S. dash sweep" since Paddock and Woodring combined to take the honors in 1920.

The continuation of the whirl shared with the third day's track program interest, with the 800-meter final in which the new British champion Tom Hampton faced the challenge of three Americans: Eddie Gemung, Charles Hornbostel and Ned Turner among others.

Meanwhile two sturdy Irish champions were crowned—Patrick O'Callaghan in the hammer throw for the second straight Olympic second to 32 seconds and this was accepted as equalling Taylor's mark.

Officials said paid attendance for the two days of sparkling competition in the stadium approximated 100,000 making it certain the tenth Olympic games will pass the previous record turnout of 130,000 paid for the entire eight days of track and field sports at Amsterdam.

Records tumbled in four events yesterday. New Olympic standards have been set in four of the six men's events concluded so far.

The feminine brigade has caught the spirit of 1932 by cracking world records in both contests staged for them so far. Babe Didrikson hurled the javelin 143 feet 4 inches and Stella Walsh, Cleveland girl competing for Poland, running the 100-meter preliminary twice yesterday in 11.98 seconds.

Tolan Was 100

It will be a long time before yesterday's crowd quite arguing about that 100-meter battle between Tolan and Metcalfe. To perhaps a majority it looked as though Metcalfe won by a scant margin as the two Negroes swooped into the tape.

But the judges after a long parley said Tolan.

They were convinced they were right by two inches after examining the pictures taken by the electronic photographic device the camera "click" Metcalfe's foot touched the line first but Tolan in the words of Gustavus T. Kirby, American chief judge, got his torso to the tape first and that's what the pay-off is based on.

Tolan and Metcalfe were the stars of the field although they were not far from front of Jonathan or Simpson, the third and fourth men.

The 124 finish of the American sprint trio added 18 points to the team score and helped boost the two-day total for the United States to 58 points enough to point the way to certain defense of the team title.

The strongest trio the United States has yet sent into the 3000 meter steeplechase led by Joe McQuaker of Fordham all qualified for the finals as a result of two record-breaking trials.

Erstwhile Cardinal Play-Boy Continues Comeback with Star Performance.

By The Associated Press
Credit for the 1934's greatest baseball comeback seems to belong almost without question to Flint Rhem, erstwhile play-boy of the St. Louis Cardinals and now a consistent winner for Burt Shotton's flailing Phillies.

The right hander whose disregard of training rules and inefficiency pitching cost him his place in the Cardinals organization has roiled up a string of eight victories against only two defeats since he joined the Phillies early in the campaign. For the Cardinals he had won four games and lost two. Rhem's pitching was responsible in no small measure for the Phillies' third straight victory over the league leading Pittsburgh Pirates yesterday 1-0. It was significant that Rhem blanked the Pirates on 11 hits teammates had piled up a 9-0 lead for him.

Tex Carleton pitched the Cardinals in a 4-2 victory over the Boston Braves in the only other game on the National league program.

The New York Yankees and Philadelphia Athletics were the day's winners in the abbreviated American league program.

The Yankees tripped Detroit, 4-3. Babe Ruth's sensational hitting streak came to an end as Whitey Witt and Waite Hoyak hit four times after he had been called out on strikes in the first inning.

Rube Walberg had a slight edge on Max Ferrell as the Athletics noosed the Cleveland Indians 1-0. Ferrell allowed only two hits until the ninth when singles by Charney Fox and McNeil scored.

The only run of the battle. It was the A second 1-0 victory over the Indians in as many days.
